

House Resolution No. 1107

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize Missouri DeMolay, which will hold its annual state convention May 27-30, 2005, at the Capitol Plaza Hotel in Jefferson City; and

Whereas, during the convention, nearly five hundred young men of Missouri DeMolay will come together for a weekend of leadership training, athletic competition, ceremonial competitions unique to the organization, and other activities; and

Whereas, DeMolay boasts a rich history of developing young men into leaders of character since its founding in 1919; and

Whereas, famous members of DeMolay include Walt Disney, John Wayne, and several United States senators, astronauts, governors, businessmen, and professional athletes; and

Whereas, the young men of Missouri have committed their lives to improving themselves, those around them, their communities, and to the service of others:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty and robust congratulations to the members and leaders of Missouri DeMolay for their numerous accomplishments, and in wishing them only the very best of success as they gather in Jefferson City for their annual state convention; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Missouri DeMolay.

Offered by Speaker Rod Jetton
District No. 156

I, Rod Jetton, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, First Regular Session, do certify that the above is a true and correct copy of House Resolution No. 1107, adopted March 8, 2005.
